

Ski into winter with Logis' best French chalets

Despite being in the midst of summer, Brits are already looking ahead and preparing to hit the slopes across Europe for adrenaline-pumping snow holidays with friends and family this winter.

The Fédération Internationale des Logis (FIL), Europe's leading network of independent hotel-restaurants, with over 2,400 properties, has long been renowned for its comprehensive offering of ski lodges across the Alps and the Pyrenees. Whether visitors are looking to master the black run or learn to ski or board for the first time, Logis is the perfect place to start.
